To whom it may concern,

I wanted to let you know how pleased I was with your service. I have been looking for a cousin for years with no luck. I knew where he was born and where he was married and who he worked for. I had called his work, where he had since retired, and they wouldn't give me any information, including even what state he was living in.

I called your service on the morning of Jan. 20th, 2004 and within one hour Bob Calabrese had found that his wife had died in the 70's and that she was buried in the Salt Lake City Cemetery. By noon my time, I had a phone number of this cousins' son, who also lives in Salt Lake City. I was able to call and talk to him that afternoon and he was able to fill me in on his parents' lives.

I was amazed at how fast Bob was able to find this information for me, when I had been working on it for years. He was so helpful and pleasant to talk to on the phone.

Thank you so much. I really appreciate it and will keep your names for future use.

Sincerely,
