Dear Ari,

How can I ever thank you for the miracle you accomplished in uniting my mother and her twin sisters after 58 long years? Nothing I can say or do will ever be enough! The attached article that appeared in my mom's local newspaper is a start in telling you the story of our heart-warming and momentous reunion.

When I first saw my mom's sisters, I immediately felt recognition and kinship. As we talked and talked for the next several hours, the connections and similar feelings, ideas and thoughts were those of a true family. They have many of the same character traits, mannerisms and even ideas that others in our family share. It's amazing!

It seemed impossible to get enough information passed between us in the short days we had together. Thanks to you, we're now planning a family reunion sometime in the spring or summer where more of my moms and her sisters' children and grandchildren and spouses can meet for the first time.

Ari, you are a most magnificent and generous friend. I can hardly wait to see you at Heckerling this January to thank you in person.

If there is any favor I can ever do for you, just ask.

Warmest wishes for the Happiest of Holidays and most Prosperous and Healthy New Year,
