Re: Harvey E. Morse, P.A. - Genealogical Research

To whom it may concern:

I recently had occasion to use the services of Harvey E. Morse, P.A. in order to locate heirs of a deceased client of mine. I began the case with information from caregivers that there were no living relatives, no friends and that the decedent hadn't communicated with anyone other than his caregivers for at least five (5) years. But for the efforts of Ari Morse, the decedent's estate would have escheated to the State of Florida.

It turned out that there were six (6) heirs on the paternal side of my client's family. Ari went over and above what was initially asked of him in searching out these individuals through obituaries, school records, church records and the like. I can't praise him highly enough for all of the effort he made and for the thoroughness of his results.

Without qualification, I would recommend the services of Harvey E. Morse, P.A. as a genealogical search company. Both my husband and I are attorneys. Having dealt with other "similar" companies in the past, I can honestly say that we plan to use their services exclusively in the future in situations where heirs and/or witnesses need to be located. Anyone reading this would be well served to do the same.

Sincerely,

Alyson R. Dachelet
