To Whom It May Concern:

Three years ago our firm was retained by the personal representative of a decedent's estate which involved missing heirs. The estate owned assets valued at approximately $450,000, all of which would have passed to the State of Michigan had it not been for the fine work of Ari Morse, of Harvey E. Morse, P.A International Genealogical Research.

Ari not only discovered several unknown heirs, but he made the whole administration process much more effective and efficient for the Court, the attorneys, and beneficiaries. He is very knowledgeable about his field, he was very prompt in providing the paperwork necessary to administer the estate, he timely returned all phone calls, and in general, was very professional and easy to work with.

I would highly recommend Ari Morse, and Harvey E. Morse, P.A International Genealogical Research.

Very truly yours,
